TISHA B'AV OBSERVANCE

Monday, July 15th 9:15 p.m.

Tisha B'av, the fast of the Ninth of Av, is a day of mourning to commemorate the many tragedies that have befallen the Jewish people, many of which coincidentally have occurred on the ninth of Av. Tisha B'av means "the ninth (day) of Av."

Tisha B'av primarily commemorates the destruction of the first and second temples, both of which were destroyed on the ninth of Av (the first by the Babylonians in 586 B.C.E.; the second by the Romans in 70 C.E.).

Tisha B'Av is the culmination of a three-week period of increased mourning, beginning with the fast of the 17th of Tammuz, which commemorates the first breach in the walls of Jerusalem, before the Second Temple was destroyed. At Adath Jeshurun, the book of Lamentations is read and mourning prayers are recited. We hope you'll join us for this solemn observance.

THE FINAL PHASE OF OUR RENOVATION HAS OFFICIALLY BEGUN!

We've broken ground on the outdoor entrance plaza and can't wait for you to see our progress. This photo is of a bulldozer paving the way for our new driveway. We look forward to unveiling the finished project in August!

BONNIE'S BAKING BUNCH
By AJ Top Chef Bonnie Shaikun

There are two sides to everything. On one hand, we have a fabulous group of people who have bonded, baked, cooked and chatted. On the other hand, things do not always remain the same. We are happy for Eleanor Schwartz who is moving to Atlanta to be with her family, but we are certainly sad to see her leave. She will be very missed! Bonnie Toborowsky is leaving Louisville for nine months, but she will be back. Both Eleanor and Bonnie have been great contributors to our group, and we love them!

We had a very busy month and several people came in to help a few times in a week. That is devotion! The Baking Bunch prepared goodies for Derby Shabbat, Confirmation, Mother's Day Shabbat, the Annual Meeting and a sponsored Kiddush lunch. We made some interesting recipes (e.g. watermelon cake) and kept true to our promise of low-sugar desserts and also high calorie goodies.

Thank you to Phyllis Leibson, Joan Klein, Bonnie Toborowsky, Lois Dunner, Georgia Goldman, Gale Katcher, Jenni Katcher, and Deb Dillon for all of your hard work!

Many people have told me that they would like to bake or cook with our group. We would be delighted for you to join us. Please contact Bonnie Shaikun at 458-5359 or email: bshaikun@adathjeshurun.com. I'm looking forward to hearing from you!

IN MEMORIAM

The Congregation extends our condolences to the family and friends of Gerald Berman and Helen Vine.

NEWS FROM THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

By AJ President, Arnold J. Zegart

Below are excerpts from the remarks that I made at the AJ Annual Meeting in May. I find it hard to believe that it has already been one year since taking office as your president. I am very happy to report that we have 344 AJ members who have contributed to our Revitalization campaign – a whopping 68% participation. That is why it is such a pleasure to be a part of this great congregation. These 344 families made it possible for all of us to enjoy this beautiful renovation, and I thank you all for that!

This past year has just flown by. I compare my journey as being a passenger in a very fine motor car. First we have the four wheels that keep us moving. One of the wheels is Molly Evancho who is responsible for so many things. As our Event Coordinator, she has excelled. Our many successes in programming and events can be attributed directly to her. She has also stepped right in to fill the gaps whenever she is needed in the kitchen, in the office or out in the physical plant.

Another wheel is Barbara Embry who is our "Director of First Impressions" if I may borrow that phrase from Steve Evans. As an Administrative Assistant, she is often the first voice you hear or the first face you see when coming to the AJ office. Her smile and calm voice always make AJ a warm and welcoming place for guests and visitors.

Another wheel is Holly Southwick. She is the Financial Administrator and is the coordinator of budgets, income, expenses and any and all things financial. With our $850,000 operating budget and our $4.4 million renovation budget, she is THE ONE who puts it all together and keeps it together.

The final wheel is really a combination of parts to make the whole wheel roll. Tony Brooks, our custodian, has come back from a severe foot injury and is now hitting the road at full speed again. Angie Gaines, our Kitchen Coordinator, has returned after being out on sick leave for a short time.

The driver of my fine motor car is our Synagogue Administrator, Robin Silverman. Robin always keeps a steady hand on the wheel to keep AJ moving on down the road to excellence. She has helped me negotiate some tough back roads, and her advice and guidance is most appreciated. I also appreciate her editing skills that keep me out of trouble.

Every fine motor car has special amenities that set it apart from the ordinary. Bonnie Shaikun's official title is Administrative Assistant, but her specialty is Bonnie's Baking Bunch. Every Saturday we have a Kiddush lunch after Shabbat services, and this has turned out to be a weekly social event that is a direct result of Bonnie's Baking Bunch's excellent food presentations. Bonnie also assigns the weekly Torah readings.

Another important part of our team is Deborah Slosberg, our Adult Education Coordinator. Her patience and skill in teaching adults and children is invaluable in giving meaning to the Jewish experience.

Our newest staff member, Lizzie Tasch, has just recently started and already is branching out into other staff duties beyond her initial job of Membership Services Coordinator. Lizzie is a great new addition to our staff.

A special thanks goes out to our Preschool Director, Melissa Loyd. Under her direction we keep setting new records in enrollment. The reputation of our preschool has spread city wide and we now have a waiting list for admission.

As with any fine motor car, the sound system is an integral part of excellence. Our premium 10 speaker, surround sound, Bose system is of course Cantor Lipp. We are blessed to have his many musical talents. But equally impressive is his spirituality, empathy and sense of compassion. It has been a true pleasure to share the bimah with him on many occasions. Obviously I have been a work in progress, and I so appreciate his guidance in making me a better pulpit officer.

Oh yes – a very fine motor car needs a superior engine to make it run efficiently and smoothly. Our engine, Rabbi Slosberg is a V-12 with all cylinders constantly humming. Most all of you know how important he has been to AJ. But until you have the opportunity to work with him first hand, you can't appreciate what he does, a lot of it quietly behind the scenes. We have developed a special relationship which I treasure and cherish.

And so there you have it – I've been a passenger in this great big beautiful motor car called Adath Jeshurun and it has given me quite a fantastic ride and experience this past year. I look forward to another year of "moving on down the road." I can guarantee you that we won't need a GPS to guide us down this path to excellence with our great staff and congregation working together.

Shalom y'all.

Arnold

CANTOR'S COLUMN

By Cantor David Lipp

Due to a canceled flight from Newark following the annual Cantors Assembly convention, where I was de-installed as Treasurer (whew!) and moments later installed as Vice President of Administration, I was unable to make this address in person to AJ's Annual Meeting on May 23rd. This is what I would have said:

This week we read the portion of B'Ha-alotcha in which Aaron is commanded to light the Menorah in the ancient Mishkan and immediately thereafter initiate the Levites into their service.

In a sense, the AJ Board functions as the Levites of the congregation, promoting our programs and services, and complementing the staff by helping to perform all those nitty gritty details that are necessary for the proper functioning of a synagogue.

This past year, my own Levitical pursuits -- in addition to the regular attendance and assistance at minyan, service leading, Torah facilitating, life-cycle officiating, preschool playing, pastoral attending, b'nei and b'not mitzvah preparing, LBSY (Religious School) teaching, Film and Holocaust committees serving, and accompanying Fred Whittaker's 8th Grade class to the Holocaust museum -- have included continued attempts to innovate in presenting AJ programs both recent and long-lasting.

For the first time in 19 years of serving AJ, I've embraced Bluegrass music by inviting my colleague Cantor Mike Stein from Los Angeles who collaborated to record another Kentucky Homefront hosted by John Gage including local legends of the genre Steve Cooley and Lauren White.

I have continued to create musical programs for the assisted living and nursing homes where our congregants reside often concluding the 'tour' with a performance at the Glenview. This past year has included a Chanukah program, a Bluegrass program (resulting in far more such residents attending the Bluegrass with Jewish Sass March Music Festival mentioned above) and an enhanced Broadway program which is still 'on the road.'

The Restaurant Edition of Out of Shul Experiences took two forms this year. For young adults, I collaborated with the JCL's Young Adult division to teach from Genesis in poetry and Jewish text at KT's. Although the room was hardly private and I felt that I was yelling more than teaching, A few weeks ago a young woman approached my wife and me saying she was waitressing that evening and tried to catch what she could from the talk. One never knows who's listening. Furthermore, also in concert with the Young Adult Division as well as a more general audience, for the first time, AJ sponsored a variety show at the Bard's Town Lounge called Chanukah Chappens. It featured singers, a poet, a story teller, a comedian, and to the extent that something like that can be, it was sold out.

Although AJ has been featured on many Kentucky Homefront programs with John Gage and I was a guest host a few years ago for some programs of Jewish music on the classical public station, I have wanted for years to put together some music programs with commentary around the Jewish holidays. This past Days of Awe season featured two hours worth of music, one liturgical and the other music inspired by themes of the High Holy Days on WUOL, the classical station. For Chanukah, there was both a classical hour of music as well as an hour of funky Fest of Lights selections for WFPK.

As we look towards the fall, we are beginning the planning process for Melton which I taught for many years before it was suspended last year. Rabbi Slosberg is responsible for its future 'resurrection' and appropriate kudos are very much in order.

The pre-Selichot program this year will highlight the important work of the school for The Academy at St. Andrews, a school for autistic students hosted in our neighbor church across the street.

On Sunday night, November 10th, we are planning a 75th Anniversary Kristallnacht commemoration which will include testimony, music and a moving memorial. We already have a tentative agreement from Ilse and Mike Meyer's granddaughter Monica, who is currently studying for the rabbinate, to participate in the service as well as other witnesses and students of witnesses of that pivotal moment in our people's often tragic history.

Whenever I'm thanked by anyone in the community for any of the things I do as your cantor, I sometimes have the opportunity to point out that they should show you their gratitude for raising me up, giving me the flexibility and freedom I need to create and innovate and serve.

Todah Rabbah,
Cantor Lipp

WHY DO WE LEAVE PEBBLES OR STONES ON A HEADSTONE IN THE CEMETERY?

The Jewish tradition of leaving a pebble or stone on top of a headstone signifies that someone has honored the deceased person's memory with a visit to the grave. AJ has stones available at the bases of many of the big trees around the circle when driving into the cemetery. Please help yourself to the pebbles.

FOUR NEW MEMBERSHIP SUPPORT OPTIONS NOW AVAILABLE AT AJ!

To better meet the needs of our current members and potential new members, The AJ Board of Trustees has created the following new membership support options which are all effective beginning July 1, 2013.

1 YOUNG JEWISH ADULTS AGES 26 – 29 ARE NOW ELIGIBLE FOR A COMPLIMENTARY MEMBERSHIP AT ADATH JESHURUN!

That's right! Young adults in these age groups are welcome to establish an AJ membership at no charge! Young adults are welcome at AJ, and we've now made it easier for them to join.

2 MEMBER SUPPORT FOR CONGREGANTS AGES 30 – 35 HAS NOW BEEN SIMPLIFIED!

We have eliminated the aged-based dues schedule for members ages 30 – 35. One-adult households will now pay $50 per month, and two-adult households will now pay $100 per month.

3 FOR A LIMITED TIME, FRIENDS AND FAMILY MEMBERS CAN JOIN AJ FOR 50% OFF!

From July 1, 2013 through December 31, 2013, AJ is offering a one-time membership promotion to enable new members to share in the excitement of our spectacular renovation. Those who join Adath Jeshurun during this period are eligible for a 50% dues reduction during their first year of membership. This promotion is available to anyone who is not currently an AJ member and who is not applying for reduced dues. If you have children, grandchildren or friends who would like to take advantage of this offer, please have them contact AJ Membership Services Coordinator, Lizzie Tasch at 458-5359 or etasch@adathjeshurun.com. We look forward to welcoming new faces to Adath Jeshurun!

4 21ST CENTURY PLAQUE SUPPORT NOW A VIABLE OPTION FOR ALL MEMBERS!

AJ is so blessed to have members who financially support the synagogue above and beyond what is requested. These generous folks enable AJ to meet our financial obligations and make it possible for others to participate in synagogue life who are unable to afford the full cost of membership. The names of all of our 21st Century Plaque participants are displayed on a free-standing plaque located in the Rabbi Robert B. Slosberg Event Center (small auditorium.) To make it easier for additional members to participate, we have modified our 21st Century Plaque support structure to include a flat dollar amount above standard membership dues.

If you would like more information about AJ's 21st Century Plaque program, please contact AJ Treasurer, Armand Ostroff at aostroff@insightbb.com or call him at 899-9488.

Please remember that AJ membership dues are tax-deductible, and AJ accepts many payment options including automatic bank drafts and credit cards. If you want to change your payment method, contact AJ Financial Administrator, Holly Southwick at hsouthwick@adathjeshurun.com or call 458-5359.

AJ thanks all of our valued members for their support and sustenance of our vibrant synagogue community!

NEWS FROM THE MEMBERSHIP SERVICES COORDINATOR

By Membership Services Coordinator, Lizzie Tasch

Beginning on July 1, 2013, AJ is offering great new membership incentives for future members of the synagogue. Read about the exciting new opportunities that are now available in the article above. Do you know someone who is interested in becoming an AJ member but may not have the financial means to do so? These new incentives are designed to help them, as well as younger adults who may be in the same position.

I am very interested in creating programs geared towards new members and young adults. I would like to get your suggestions on events and activities that you think would be interesting and fun. In April, a small group of AJ members went to Uptown Art Uncorked, and had a great afternoon schmoozing and learning to paint roses and lilies for Derby. In May, the AJ softball team kicked off their season with a great crowd to cheer them on, which often included myself and my four-legged child Buster. Activities like these are what bring people together.

Let me know if you have any ideas or suggestions!

Sincerely,
Lizzie Tasch ● AJ Membership Services Coordinator ● etasch@adathjeshurun.com ● 502.458.5359 ext. 112

AJ "GOES THE DISTANCE" FOR THE ACADEMY AT ST. ANDREWS

Saturday night, August 31, 2013 ♦ Pre-Selichot Program at AJ

8:45 p.m. FREE Disney Concert
10:00 p.m. Dessert Reception
10:30 p.m. Inspirational Selichot Service

Join us for an amazing evening of music, tzedakah and prayer! Our pre-Selichot fundraiser this year is for AJ's next door neighbor, the Academy at St. Andrews, a school for children with autism. One of our members is a student at St. Andrews, and both Rabbi Slosberg and Cantor Lipp have visited the school and are impressed with their creativity and one-on-one teacher/student ratio. Their goal is to provide every child with 100 learning opportunities per hour.

The concert will feature Disney music played by bluegrass band Storefront Congregation, and sung by Cantor Lipp, John Gage and Jennifer Diamond! Dawne Gee and perhaps a surprise celebrity or three will also make appearances. We will hear both from those who work at the school and those who benefit from its unique educational protocols. Following the program there will be an opportunity to donate to the school and enjoy wonderful desserts from Bonnie's Baking Bunch. This program is made possible in part by the Jodi Feld Lapin Fund.

Following the concert and reception, join us for our Selichot service, which ushers in the high holy days. This year, the service will begin earlier at the new time of 10:30 p.m. For more information, please call the AJ office at 458-5359 or email mevancho@adathjeshurun.com.
